About the Fondation Centre de Cancérologie Charles-Bruneau

For 20 years, the mission of the Fondation Centre de Cancérologie Charles-Bruneau has been to give children with cancer the best chances for recovery through supporting research. It financed the founding, building and development of the Centre de Cancérologie Charles-Bruneau at CHU Sainte-Justine, the third largest of its kind in North America.

The quality of care offered and major breakthroughs made in recent years have enabled more children to win their battle against the disease. As such, the recovery rate for lymphoblastic leukemia has risen from 35% in 1980 to more than 85% today. The Fondation believes that children with cancer have the right to receive the best possible care, so that one day, they all will be able to say: "When I grow up, I will be cured!"
